

Company Profile:

Chevron Canada Limited

Chevron Canada Limited is a wholly owned subsidiary of Chevron Corporation. Since 1938, Chevron Canada has been involved in exploring for, developing, producing and marketing crude oil, natural gas and natural gas liquids in Canada.

Chevron Corporation is one of the world's leading integrated energy companies, with subsidiaries that conduct business worldwide. The company's success is driven by the ingenuity and commitment of approximately 62,000 employees who operate across the energy spectrum. The Chevron vision is to be the global energy company most admired for its people, partnership and performance. In Canada and around the world, the corporation is focused on innovative partnerships with businesses, governments, local communities, environmental groups and research institutions. We work with communities to promote local development and a healthy environment. The corporation continues to build a global workforce of the highest calibre.

Chevron Canada's upstream arm has 318 full-time employees and is headquartered in Calgary, Alberta. The company focuses its exploration and production activities in Atlantic Canada, the Western Arctic and the Athabasca Oil Sands. In 2009, Chevron Canada's net daily production was 27,485 barrels of liquids and 25,688 barrels of bitumen from oil sands. Land holdings totaled almost six million net hectares.

The company makes people, as well as funds, available for worthwhile community projects and partnerships. Our desire is to help create economic growth for those most in need through capacity building.

Worldwide, Chevron is committed to protecting people and the environment through the systematic management of safety, health, environment, reliability and efficiency. The company works to achieve an injury-free, healthy workplace, eliminate spills and environmental incidents and identify and mitigate key environmental risks. Chevron strives for industry-leading asset reliability and the efficient use of all resources.

Strong values are the foundation of the Chevron Way, which establishes a common understanding of the company for employees and all its partners. These values lead Chevron Canada in socially responsible and ethical business practices, today and into the future.

FEBRUARY 2010