USES OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Personal information provided by you in your application for an Account from us in connection with such an Account or obtained subsequently from any source with your consent (collectively the "information") is maintained in a separate customer file and:

- (a) used from time to time, in furtherance of the credit process, including to obtain and exchange credit information from and with credit reporting agencies, credit references and other sources with whom you have or may expect to have financial dealings to underwrite and approve the Account;
- (b) used to enter into, maintain and carry out the governing credit agreement, including sharing information with our retail partner and/or its affiliates – where applicable – in furtherance of the operation of the Account;
- (c) disclosed to and used by our retail partner to establish and administer any applicable rewards program;
- (d) disclosed to a potential buyer as part of a sale of all or part of the portfolio of Accounts;
- (e) used to approve you for, and notify you of other financial products or services offered by GE Money and GE Money Trust Company that may be of interest to you (the "Financial Products"); and
- (f) may be disclosed to and used by third parties including – where applicable – our retail partner ("Third Parties") to develop, enhance, market or provide other products and services that may be of interest to you.

These uses and disclosures are collectively referred to as the "Purposes". GE Money may transfer some or all of the information to external service providers who process the information only in furtherance of the Purposes or in accordance with applicable law. For any questions regarding the information or the Purposes, or if you choose not to be approved for and notified of Financial Products or to have any information disclosed to Third Parties whose products or services may be of interest to you, please call 1-800-663-1787 for Chevron Personal Card.
